

Cedar Valley Figure Skating Club

Sunday, October 2, 2011

Meeting called to order at 3:46 p.m.

Absent: Barb Waters

Agenda

Financial: The club owes Abby between $4,000 and $5,000.

The Loeffelholzes added the club's phone line to their cell phone plan. This eliminated $65/mo. for a land line. (319) 291-2111.

-Ice Fee Did not go up.

Free clinic: 70 kids attended the free clinic in August. More than 10 percent joined a Learn to Skate class after the clinic.

Learn to Skate: September was the strongest Learn to Skate class yet for CVFSC.

The numbers are: Saturdays 12 (last year eight) Mondays: 23-5.

Christmas/holiday show: 27 skaters are participating in the show this year.

Graphics for the show, "Beauty and the Beast on Ice," are in the works.

Floral orders are being handled by Lorraine Winterink.

Set: Backdrops for the program this year are a Village Scene and a Castle Scene. Some work will be needed to make the hockey penalty box look like a jail.

Beast?? The cast still needs to find a male skaters to play the part of the Beast. The club agreed to ask Parker to skate the role. He isn't a member of the club but used to skate with the program and still skates at the rink.

Photos: Will take place on a Tuesday before or after Thanksgiving.

Tickets: Stephanie Giachino is handling tickets. The cost is $10 for adults and $5 for kids.

To does: Show sponsorship.

The meeting came to a close at 5:06 p.m. The next meeting is scheduled for Sunday, October 16, 2011.
